

It's easy being green with Losberger's Revolution, an environmentally friendly, semi-permanent building system that can be re-purposed, re-moved or re-cycled to fit your changing needs.

Revolution[®]

environmentally FRIENDLY STRUCTURES

The modular nature of this system allows it to be split into smaller buildings, added to in the future or relocated, something that permanent structures just can't do.

Re-Purpose It

Can be quickly dismantled, moved and rebuilt.

Re-Move It

No razing costs, can quickly be disassembled for relocation or storage.

Re-Cycle It

Everything is re-useable, no bricks & mortar to burden landfills.

Buy it, Lease it or Rent it!
